1. For all shipments of narrow woven ribbons with woven selvedge from the People's Republic of China exported by the firm listed below and entered, or withdrawn from warehouse, for consumption during the period 09/01/2010 through 08/31/2011, assess an antidumping liability equal to 123.44 percent of the entered value.

Exporter: Weifang Dongfang Ribbon Weaving Co., Ltd.

Case number: A-570-952-011

The above antidumping liability of 123.44 percent for Weifang Dongfang Ribbon Weaving Co., Ltd. reflects an adjustment for a portion of the countervailing duty rate in effect during the period 09/01/2010 through 08/31/2011 that is attributable to export subsidies. Message no. 0251309, dated 09/08/2010, instructed U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP) to assess countervailing duties on entries during the period 09/01/2010 through 08/31/2011. If CBP does not collect countervailing duties in accordance with that message or any other message on entries of narrow woven ribbons with woven selvedge and from the People's Republic of China exported by Weifang and entered, or withdrawn from warehouse, for consumption during the period 09/01/2010 through 08/31/2011, assess antidumping duties at the cash deposit rate in effect on the date of the entry for Weifang Dongfang Ribbon Weaving Co., Ltd.

2. On 09/01/2010, the International Trade Commission ("ITC") published in the Federal Register (75 FR 53711, dated 09/01/2010) its final determination notifying the Department of Commerce that imports of narrow woven ribbons with woven selvedge from the People's Republic of China threaten the U.S. industry with material injury. Accordingly, all entries of subject merchandise that were entered or withdrawn from warehouse for consumption before 09/01/2010 were liquidated without regard to antidumping duties (i.e., release all bonds and return all cash deposits) under message number 0252304, dated 09/09/2010 and message number 0299301, dated 10/26/2010.

paragraphs 1 and 2 occurred with the publication of the final results of administrative review (78 FR10130, 02/13/2013). Unless instructed otherwise, for all other shipments of narrow woven ribbons with woven selvedge from the People's Republic of China , you shall continue to collect cash deposits of estimated antidumping duties for the merchandise at the current cash deposit rates or per-unit amounts.

4. There are no injunctions applicable to the entries covered by this instruction.

5. The assessment of antidumping duties by CBP on shipments or entries of this merchandise is subject to the provisions of section 778 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended. Section 778 requires that CBP pay interest on overpayments or assess interest on underpayments of the required amounts deposited as estimated antidumping duties. The interest provisions are not applicable to cash or bonds posted as estimated antidumping duties before the date of publication of the antidumping duty order. Interest shall be calculated from the date payment of estimated antidumping duties is required through the date of liquidation. The rate at which such interest is payable is the rate in effect under section 6621 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 for such period.

6. Upon assessment of antidumping duties, CBP shall require that the importer provide a reimbursement statement, as described in section 351.402(f)(2) of commerce's regulations. The importer should provide the reimbursement statement prior to liquidation of the entry. If the importer certifies that it has an agreement with the manufacturer, producer, seller, or exporter, to be reimbursed antidumping and/or countervailing duties, CBP shall double the antidumping duty and/or increase the antidumping duty by the amount of the countervailing duties in accordance with the above-referenced regulation. Additionally, if the importer does not provide the reimbursement statement prior to liquidation, reimbursement shall be presumed and CBP shall double the antidumping duties due. If an importer timely files a protest challenging the presumption of reimbursement and doubling of duties, consistent with CBP's protest process, CBP may accept the reimbursement statement filed with the protest to rebut the presumption of reimbursement.

If there are any questions by the importing public regarding this message, please contact the Call Center for the Office of AD/CVD Operations, Import Administration, International Trade Administration, U.S. Department of Commerce at (202) 482-0984.
